

CARTIER

ONION, BROWN

RM 150 days from a early September sowing. Cartier is a very productive and very uniform variety that is capable of producing high yields of top quality bulbs. Bulbs are of a flattened globe shape, firm and with multiple skins that develop an attractive copper colour during storage. Cartier has natural vigour and must not be pushed with fertiliser or delayed during its development, with careful consideration given to its growing location.

